

Before suspending your hospital cover, you should seek advice regarding your Medicare Levy Surcharge obligations. The surcharge is payable by high-income earners during any period of suspended hospital cover.

ADF overseas posting

When you are sent overseas on an accompanied posting, your dependants will usually receive reimbursements from the ADF for treatments provided overseas. You should check with the Overseas Administration Centre to confirm your dependants' entitlements.

Legislation prohibits Defence Health from providing benefits in respect of hospital, dental and other treatments provided outside Australia. You may therefore wish to suspend your Defence Health cover.

Cover can be suspended for a minimum 28 days and a maximum three years. If your posting is extended, then you can apply for an extension of your suspension period. Cover must be reinstated within 30 days of returning to Australia, effective from your date of return, to avoid re-serving waiting periods. We will need proof of posting date or the date of your re-entry into Australia.

If you return to Australia for holidays or medical evacuation, you may reinstate your cover for that period.

ADF Reservists on continuous full-time service

If you're on continuous full-time service (CFTS) for more than 28 days, you may suspend your cover for a maximum of two years (which may be extended at Defence Health's discretion) or change your premiums to the equivalent ADF rate for the full duration of the service.

Reinstate your cover within 30 days of finishing CFTS to avoid re-serving waiting periods.

Financial hardship

In cases of financial hardship your cover may be suspended for a minimum of three and up to a maximum of 12 months. A policy may only be suspended for financial hardship three times. Application to reinstate cover must be received before the suspension period has expired.

You will have to provide reasons for the hardship suspension. Full cover must be suspended. Cover must be reinstated within 30 days of the suspension expiry to avoid re-serving waiting periods.

Overseas travel

If you travel overseas for an extended period or move overseas to work and/or live, you can suspend your cover for a minimum of 28 days and a maximum of 2 years.

Cover must be reinstated within 30 days of returning to Australia, effective from your date of return, to avoid serving new waiting periods. Proof of date of your re-entry into Australia will be required. For example, a legible copy of boarding passes, tickets or a copy of a passport stamped by customs.

Before embarking on your overseas travel, you should consider taking out travel insurance.

What else you should know

- ▶ To be eligible, you must have held cover with Defence Health for 12 months immediately before you apply to suspend your cover.
- ▶ To suspend or vary your cover, you can either complete a Membership Suspension Application form or make the request in writing or by telephone.
- ▶ Requests for suspension will not be accepted retrospectively.
- ▶ Your membership must be paid up to the date of suspension.
- ▶ Reservists on CFTS may suspend at any time; overseas travel and deployment requires at least 6 months between suspensions; all other suspensions require 12 months between suspensions.
- ▶ No benefits are payable during the period of suspension or variation.
- ▶ Under the Lifetime Health Cover legislation, periods of suspension do not count toward your 1094 allowable 'days without hospital cover'. Therefore, a Lifetime Health Cover loading will not change during a period of suspended cover.
- ▶ To reinstate your cover, you can either complete a Membership Resumption Request form or you can make the request in writing or by telephone. Please attach all related documentation.
- ▶ When the maximum period of approved suspension has been reached, you must reactivate your membership within 30 days. If reactivation occurs later than 30 days, the policy will be considered new and waiting periods will need to be re-served.
